

SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1858, 1 A. M.
See Reading Matter on First Page.

WEATHER REPORT.

JULY 1, 1858.

Reported for Louisville Journal.

AUGUST ELECTION.

AMERICAN NOMINATIONS.
OR JUDGE OF THE COUNTY COURT
ANDREW HARRISON.
FOR CLERK OF THE COUNTY COURT,
CHARLES W. HARRISON.
FOR Sheriff,
W. S. D. McGEOWAN.
FOR JUDGE,
WILLIAM K. THOMAS.
FOR COUNSEL ATTORNEY,
JOHN JOHNSON, JR.
FOR JUDGE,
DR. J. T. HARRISON.
FOR ASSISTANT,
JOHN HARSHORN.
FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY,
WENDELL D. BROWN.
FOR JUDGE OF THE CITY COURT,
GEORGE W. JOHNSON.
FOR CLERK OF THE CITY COURT,
GEORGE W. STRATTAN.
FOR JUDGE OF THE CITY COURT,
WILLIAM E. BENSON.

Wanton—a first-rate writer and iron. Apply at office.

The Executive Committee of the American party will meet promptly to-night at 8 o'clock.

Banquet given to the General in Chief.

making important changes in the Army en route for Utah. The Command-in-Chief has been delayed.

Gen. Johnston, and Gen. Harney have been recalled to command the department of the

The Meeting Last Night on the Point.—The large assembly at the Farny House, on the Point, last night, gave evidence of a complete revival of the old enthusiasm of the American party. Roger S. Harney, Esq., who was announced to be present, but the meeting was addressed at length, in behalf of the American party, by Col. Whiteley, Judge Johnson, and Robert F. Baird, Esq. After the conclusion of Mr. Harney's speech, Judge Johnson, and Mr. Baird, left for their home, parts of last Sunday, and the latest news.

Those going South, of course, avail themselves of the train, while Capt. Sturgell and Capt. Smith go to Memphis or officers or men.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia. The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

The first named finally landed down W. W.

Gen. Harney, for $600, the Philadelphia was received by Capt. H. Marshall, for the sum of $1400. She is to be put forthwith into the St. Louis and Memphis.

The Diana, this magnificent steamer reached Portland at half-past eleven yesterday morning; having made a rapid trip from Fort Leavenworth to the mouth of the Missouri.

The Diana has had a fine trip and was only five days and eighteen hours from port to port, and making forty miles a day, and has been in the river less than six weeks.

Her arrival has been awaited with great interest by all the Americans in the city, and she has been received with a hearty welcome.

The Diana has been put into her departure till 6 o'clock to-morrow morning.

For St. Louis.—The Meteors, a splendid boat, will sail for St. Louis. She runs well, has fine machinery, good officers. Her police officer, Messrs. Hinton and Harrison, have had no other obligation for favors.

We see, from the St. Louis papers, that the Missouri river packet, John H. Wiley, will also go to the South. The American has gone either to Souther or to the Russian Possessions.

At St. Louis, on Wednesday, the U. S. Marshal and the Steamers Aunt Lucy and Philadelphia.

